NINE AF-ROTC MEN WILL BE "DISTINGUISHED GRADUATES"

Nine University Air Force ROTC men will be "distinguished military graduates" at the forty-sixth annual Commencement.

Colonel Allen Wood, professor of Air Science, said that 45 men would get Air Force commissions.

"Nine of these men are our top students and will have an opportunity to apply for regular Air Force career commissions," said Col. Wood.

Distinguished cadets will be John Courtright, Richard Danielson, John Haury, Frank Pazlar, Larry Peters, Melvin Rousek, Emmett Shields, Joseph Smith, and John Vana.

ELEVEN GRADUATES TO GET DEGREES WITH DISTINCTION

Eleven OU seniors will graduate with Distinction June 6.

Those receiving Bachelor of Science degrees with Distinction are John Haury, insurance; Myra French, retailing; Beverly Petersen, physical education; Gloria Dunaway and Joanne Rentschler, dietetics; and Jo Olsen and Paul Cherling, journalism.

Bachelor of Arts degrees with Distinction will go to Roger Dumbier, Robert Skudlarek and Sal Weinberg, economics; and Sharon Erdkamp, government.

Sir Leslie Knox Munro, K.C.M.G., Ambassador to the US from New Zealand, will speak on "Ideas Leap Frontiers" at the Commencement exercises June 6. The forty-sixth annual ceremony will be at 5:00 p.m. in the Stadium.

Sir Leslie is New Zealand's permanent representative to the United Nations.

He is an associate editor of the New Zealand Herald, large Auckland Daily.

Born in Auckland, Sir Leslie graduated from Auckland University College as a Master of Laws with honors in law of contract and Roman Law. He practiced law in Auckland and lectured at the University College in history, jurisprudence and constitutional law, becoming Dean of the Faculty of Law in 1938.

He was made Knight Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George in the New Year Honours list of 1955.

Sir Leslie replaces Dr. Clarence Hilberry as Commencement speaker. Dr. Hilberry, who is president of Wayne University is unable to attend due to illness.

JANICE PETERS WINS 1955 "MISS OMAHA" CONTEST

Janice Peters, 19-year-old Omaha U sophomore, was chosen Miss Omaha May 19 at the City Auditorium.

Miss Peters was named from three finalists, who were judged on talent, personality and beauty. Miss Peters played the piano in the talent section of the judging.

She is the third OU coed to win the title in four years. Last year's winner was Pat Kavan.

The other finalists were Donice Dean and Joycelyn Reifschneider, a former University student.

Miss Peters is a business administration major and a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority.

CASH IN USED TEXT BOOKS AT BOOKSTORE THIS WEEK

A representative buyer of a used book company will be at the University Bookstore during exam week until Tuesday.

Ben Koenig, Bookstore manager, said this offers students an outlet for books that are no longer used on campus, and therefore are not sold in the Bookstore.

SUMMER SCHOOL REGISTRATION ENDS WITH JUNE 15 DEADLINE

Students may register for summer school from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. every day except Commencement Day, June 6, until June 15. Registrar Alice C. Smith asks that students try to complete registration by June 11, however.

Students who already have their counselor's signature and Dean's signature, if needed, on their fall program schedule may still register in the Registrar's Office. The service will close Wednesday.

WHAT MAKES PROFS TICK? BULLETIN GIVES ANSWER

Have you ever wondered what makes a college professor tick?

You say you have? But you just haven't been able to figure out the answer. Well, the American Association of University Professors' Bulletin has helped supply a list of things to look for when psychoanalyzing your favorite professor.

It's easy. All you have to do is take this list of "ifs" to class next year and read it over while studying your prof.

If he's brand new at teaching, he lacks experience.

If he's been teaching all his life, he's in a rut.

If he dresses decently, he's trying to be a fashion plate.

If he thinks about something besides clothes, he's a bum.

If he seldom admits a mistake, he's arrogant.

If he ever admits a mistake, he ought to go back to bricklaying.

If he plants an occasional joke in his lectures, he's a comedian.

If he never condescends to an academic nifty, he's duty dull.

If he hands out plenty of high grades, he has no standards.

If he hands out plenty of low grades, he's a butcher.

If he uses notes, he's unoriginal.

If he gets along without notes, he's an ad-libber.

If he sticks to his speciality, he's got a one-track mind.

If he tours the encyclopedia, he's a show-off.

If he listens to sports broadcasts, he's illiterate.

If he can't identify Florence Chadwick and Pee-wee Reese, he isn't human.

If he stands up while teaching, he's oratorical.

If he sits down while teaching, his feet hurt.

If he's young, he needs more seasoning.

If he's old, he's seen better days.

GREEK ACTIVITIES TAKE BACK SEAT TO FINALS

As final exam week begins, Greek activities fade into the background. Some of the more optimistic groups have looked beyond exams with plans for next week.
